GOVERNMENT ENCOURAGES MIGRATION OF FLOOD VICTIMS TO MANCHURIA

GIVES RELIEF TO FLOOD-STRICKEN FAMILIES -- Hus ch'iso Jih-pao, 9 Dec 49

Pac-ting, 28 Movember (MCMA) -- The Hopeh People's Provincial government is assisting the flood-stricken families in the province to re-settle in Northeast China. To facilitate their migration, the Tien-ching Special Commissioner's Office organized the United Migration Assistance Agency in Tien-ching where anyone who desires to start anew in Manchuria can apply.

After successful negotiation with authorities in the Northeast, the Hopeh government recently issued the following directive:

"Upon srrival in the Northeast, six families shall be organized into one unit. The local authority shall then lend six horses, one large cart, and one plow to each vait so that the families can clear the land and make it productive. The yield from the land should provide the families with 8 to 10 months' food.

"The cooperatives shall assist the migrating families by purchasing, at fair prices, any property which the families cannot take with them. At the same time, they shall supply the families with needed supplies at reasonable prices."

NAN-CHING UNIVERSITY ASSISTS PEASANTS -- Ta Kung Pao, 4 Dec 49

Utilizing their leisure hours, 54 faculty members and students of the agricultural and medical departments of the University of Nan-ching, are now giving medical treatment to peasants in rural areas.

One such medical-service corps, Dispensary No 1, is operating at Mac-kung-tu carrie ine Chung-hua Gate. During a 3-week period medical treatment was given to 152 peasants. Pecause of the courteous services rendered and the small fee charged by " corps, more and more people come to receive treatment.
